Belle Mare Plage Resort

12th to 26th September 2010

£1,765.00 per person

This event allows you to combine your own private holiday with the enjoyment of friendly, organised competitions and the company of like-minded golfing couples during our group dinners. The holiday includes unlimited golf with five organised competitions and five group dinners, leaving plenty of time to explore the island, take advantage of the resorts many facilities, or simply relax on the beach.

Located on one of the finest beaches on the island, the 5-star Belle Mare Plage is sand-wedged between the fabulous white coral beach and the resorts two championship courses.

This is a sporty, relaxed and informal five-star resort that offers an extensive array of amenities and is perfect for a relaxing holiday with plenty of comfort. The resort has three swimming pools, a luxurious spa, six restaurants, six bars including cocktail bar with live entertainment every night.

Sports & Leisure Free sports facilities and activities include a fitness centre, floodlit tennis courts, mini-golf, squash, yoga, table tennis, windsurfing, sailing, kayaks, glass bottom boats, snorkelling trips, water-skiing and pedalos. The beach is protected by an offshore coral reef making ideal for swimming as well as enjoying the complimentary watersports and the resort is set in well-tended tropical gardens of almost 20 acres.

Golf Golfers enjoy unlimited free golf on the resorts two top quality 18-hole championship courses, the Legend and the Links and can also play the 9-hole Gary Player course at neighbouring St Geran free of charge. Buggies are compulsory on the Links costing approx £20 pp per round for 18 holes including water, towel & tees. We also offer the opportunity to go and play on the 'island' course at Le Touessrok

Accommodation The price is based on staying in superbly appointed Prestige rooms – they are sea facing with either a private balcony or terrace. The stylish en suite bathrooms have baths and separate showers.
